The four paragraphs of the document are not visible in the provided image. Therefore, the text cannot be transcribed accurately. Please provide the readable text so that I can assist you further.
The second section passes over the first by focusing on the presented ideas. The second section highlights the differences in the structure of the two narratives as well as their similarities. The second section emphasizes the contrast between the two narratives, showing how they differ in their approach to the theme. The second section also discusses the implications of these differences for understanding the nature of imagination in general.
Cultures courtoises en mouvement